Subject One Last Prayer

All,

This is the hardest prayer I've ever asked for...we lost dad this morning!!! <:'-(We'll be on our way to Buffalo shortly, so pray us safely there, please, and pray we're what everyone on that end needs! Pray the Holy Spirit gives us the voice required to comfort mom...and one another! Father God, grant us safe passage and the fullness of Your almighty and unconditional love...that we might be Your messengers in this awful time...couriers of Your solace!

Attached is my Eulogy for my Dad! [attachment "DAD.doc" deleted by Raymond Hamilton*****]

And thanks...to each and every one of you...for your prayers and support to this point...and beyond. God Bless You!!!

We'll be in Buffalo for the remainder of this week, so please do not reply to THIS address...use the snet.net addies and we'll be able to access them from there!

Dear Ray:

I am saddened to hear of the passing of your Dad. I must say in the brief time I've corresponded with you that he must have been an amazing man, b/c I know you are. You are already a blessing to me, b/c you have been a blessing to my extended family. Please know that you can call me the same -- extended family.

I will keep you and your family in prayer thru this week. Please keep me posted when you're back home from Buffalo.

I do not know the other email addy that you mention below, so forgive me for replying to this one today.

In Christ,
Peter

So sorry for your pain and the family's and friends pain also. Take care of you; everyone is in my prayers..... You are the best at putting words down and the just places they need to be. A wonderful writer.

Dear Ray,

I am very sorry to learn of your father's passing. I will keep you and your family in my prayers.

I'm not sure what you meant by snet.addies, so you won't read this until you return.

I am sure you provided the needed solace. I trust you had a safe trip. And may God bless your dd on his current journey.

Take good care my friend...

John

Subject For the Record

Folks,

I just received a call from my mom saying we lost dad this morning! I have 40 hours of bereavement time coming, so I am leaving shortly and will not be returning until Tuesday next. Sorry for any schedule inconvenience, but it's unavoidable!

Ray, so sorry to hear about Dad. . . just got back today! God Bless you and your Family! Take Care, LISA

Thanks again,

It was sudden and, therefore, particularly hard, but, though it's nudged me hard a few times, it's not knocked me down! Having a strong faith in eternity is a wonderful thing at times like these, as is the ability to surrender to God those things we're not even remotely able to handle on our own!

Your prayers and always fond thoughts are, likewise, always appreciated; know, too, that you are one of those from whom these things are depended on as well...also much appreciated!!!

Ray,
I was so sorry to read about your Dad. My thoughts and prayers are with you and yours.

I was out for three weeks and did not find out till I got back and got thru 244 emails. My holiday was wonderful and I had good visits with family and friends.

To one and all.

Thank you SO MUCH for your prayers and support during this painfully trying time for us. Thanks especially to those who took the time to sign the guest book, which will be saved and archived for posterity. The family was pleased and encouraged by the many "far-flung" contributors! The service was wonderful and very representative of the wonderful man it honored..."sent ahead"...scoutin'...I pray...a good spot for the rest of us! I'm in the process of building a web page to memorialize my folks, and will forward the address as soon as it's mounted. It will include the eulogy, guest book, obituary, some galleries, and even some video Maxx was kind enough to take during the service. Meanwhile, here's the "Official Thank You Note"!

http://pages.cthome.net/rahamilton/THANKS-ALL.pdf

The guest book will be available until December 7th, when I'll capture the last of the entries for inclusion in the site:

God Bless Y'all!!!
